

Workshop Information

Title: Practice of English Classes in Middle School to Foster Autonomous Learners (Conducted in Japanese)

Lecturer: Miyuki EBISU (Hiroshima City, Furuta Middle School)

Chair: Toshihide O'KI (Hakuoh University)

- Date: September 4, 2021 (Saturday), 13:00—16:00 (including breaks)
- Venue: Online (Zoom)
- Attendance Fee: Free
- Maximum Number of Participants: 100
- Registration Period: July 1st (Mon.) – August 29th (Sun.)
(The registration will be closed after the number of participants reaches the limit.)
- Prerequisite: None

- Objectives
 1. To share with participants some practical ideas about how to facilitate students' independent learning.
 2. To share methods and ideas of improving class design and associated language activities that enable students to express their feelings and opinions.

- Procedure
 1. What is needed to foster autonomous learners
 2. Practice in the classroom
 3. Tips for the better English classes in the future

- How to Register
 1. Please click on the following link (or read the QR code) and fill in your name, affiliation, e-mail address, and questions for the instructor (if any). After the registration deadline, a Zoom link will be sent to the participants.
<https://forms.gle/y2oQEGwHTPKP5ZfR8>

 2. In case you cannot register using the above website, please email the following information to Hideaki Oka (Graduate School, University of Tsukuba) at hideakioka35155@gmail.com

| |
|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Your name, affiliation, and email address(2) Questions for the instructors (Optional)(3) Requests for this workshop, or JLTA workshops in general (Optional) |
|--|